

Online Full-text Databases (Access available through MySJRC on the Library tab)

<http://www.linccweb.org> click on Electronic Resources

Academic Search Complete

History Reference Center

Issues and Controversies

JSTOR

New York Times-Historical

GENERAL SITES

Academic Info: History Gateway

<http://www.academicinfo.net/hist.html>

“Academic Info selects, organizes, and reviews quality educational websites to make the increasing amount of information on the Internet accessible to students, educators and researchers . . .” The resources provided are organized by geographic region and subject.

Best of History Websites

<http://www.besthistorysites.net/index.shtml>

“Best of History Web Sites is an award-winning portal that contains annotated links to over 1200 history web sites as well as links to hundreds of quality K-12 history lesson plans, history teacher guides, history activities, history games, history quizzes, and more.”

The History Guide

<http://www.historyguide.org>

“The History Guide contains the complete content of three undergraduate courses in European history which will certainly be of use to those of you studying such topics at the college level or in A.P. European history classes. The History Guide contains ninety lectures in European history from ancient Sumer to the fall of Soviet-style communism in 1989. In essence, what is presented here is an online textbook in western civilization, with special reference to the western intellectual tradition.”

HistoryNet - From the World's Largest History Magazine Publisher

<http://www.historynet.com/>

“The HistoryNet.com is brought to you by the Weider History Group, the world's largest publisher of history magazines. HistoryNet.com contains daily features, photo galleries and over 5,000 articles originally published in our various magazines.”

The History Place

<http://www.historyplace.com/index.html>

“The History Place is a private, independent, Internet-only publication based in the Boston area that is not affiliated with any political group or organization. The Web site presents a fact-based, common sense approach in the presentation of the history of humanity, with great care given to accuracy.”

History On-Line

<http://ihr.sas.ac.uk/search>

“History On-Line provides high-quality information resources for the teaching and learning of history. There are currently over 40,000 records providing details of books and articles, UK university lecturers, UK current and past research, and evaluated links to web sites and on-line resources.”

History World

<http://www.historyworld.net>

“World History consists of some 400 separate Histories AND 4000 tagged events. Choose HISTORIES to read a chosen subject, and to move seamlessly from one History to another. Try TOURS to travel through time on your own selection of interconnecting trails. Use WHATWHENWHERE to discover what was going on at any moment.”

Hyper History Online

<http://www.hyperhistory.com>

“3000 years of world history timelines, biographical lifelines and many colorful maps.”

Internet History Sourcebooks Project

<http://www.fordham.edu/halsall/>

“The Internet History Sourcebooks Project is a collection of public domain and copy-permitted historical texts presented cleanly (without advertising or excessive layout) for educational use.”

University of Oxford Discussion Papers in Economic & Social History

<http://www.nuff.ox.ac.uk/Economics/History>

Mostly full-text articles discussing world economic and social history. Provided by Oxford University and available in Adobe Acrobat PDF format.

SUBJECT SPECIFIC SITES

Africa South of the Sahara: Selected Internet Resources

<http://library.stanford.edu/depts/ssrg/africa/history.html>

African histories on the internet organized by country or topic.

African Timelines: History, Orature, Literature, & Film

<http://web.cocc.edu/cagatucci/classes/hum211/timelines/htimelinetoc.htm>

This site provides a set of interactive timelines and resources on African histories.

Asia for Educators: An Initiative of the Weatherhead East Asian Institute at Columbia University

<http://afe.easia.columbia.edu/>

“An initiative of the Weatherhead East Asian Institute at Columbia University, Asia for Educators (AFE) is designed to serve faculty and students in world history, culture, geography, art, and literature at the undergraduate and pre-college levels.”

Asian Studies WWW Virtual Library

<http://coombs.anu.edu.au/WWWVL-AsianStudies.html>

“Over 15 years of continuous service to the online community. The Asian Studies WWW Virtual Library is designed for transmission speed, not fancy looks.”

EuroDocs: Primary Historical Documents from Western Europe

http://eudocs.lib.byu.edu/index.php/Main\_Page

“These links connect to Western European (mainly primary) historical documents that are transcribed, reproduced in facsimile, or translated.

They shed light on key historical happenings within the respective countries (and within the broadest sense of political, economic, social and cultural history).”

European Navigator: The Authoritative Multimedia Reference on the History of Europe

<http://www.ena.lu/>

“The digital library European NAVigator (ENA), designed and developed by the Centre Virtuel de la Connaissance sur l'Europe (CVCE), now contains some 16 000 documents on the European integration process. The key post-war historical events and the European organizations are presented chronologically and thematically, and are illustrated by a wide range of archive documents, photos, press articles and contemporary film footage, as well as interviews conducted by the CVCE with people who have been actively involved in European integration.”