

Microcomputer Repairer (4130)

COLLEGE CREDIT CERTIFICATE

SOME CERTIFICATE SPECIFIC COURSES AVAILABLE ON THE ORANGE PARK CAMPUS ONLY

This college credit certificate is designed to prepare students for employment as computer engineering technicians and in related occupations in electronic/information technology. This specialization content includes but is not limited to computer systems architecture.

This program is an intermediate step toward an Associate in Science degree in Computer Engineering Technology.

For additional information, call (386) 312-4183.

CERTIFICATE SPECIFIC COURSES:

+	CET	1173C	Computer Hardware Support Essentials3
+	CET	2174C	Computer Software Support Essentials3
	CGS	1060	Introduction to Computer Concepts3
	CGS	1100	Microcomputer Applications Software3
	CGS	1560	Microcomputer Operating Systems3

REQUIRED TOTAL CREDIT HOURS15

+Prerequisite course required. See course descriptions in catalog.

Students with current MSCE or A+ Certification may transfer up to six credits toward the Networking A.S. degree (Information Technology Certificate or Information Technology Technician Certificate.)